a reporter of "The Evening World" this afternoon that the injunction obtained by Mr. Fitzgerald against the receivers had been vacated by consent.

Mr. I intermyer explained that immediately on receipt of the injunction order he had notified Mr. Fitzgerald's counsel that he would apply at once to Jules Andrews to have it vacated, and that a specify arrangement of the matter had followed.

The result is that the receivers of the bank will not be interfered with 15 pays ing the dividend of 25 per cent, which Mr. I intermyer says is ready to be distributed.
